

Great Things Happening at Sedona Red Rock Middle School and High School

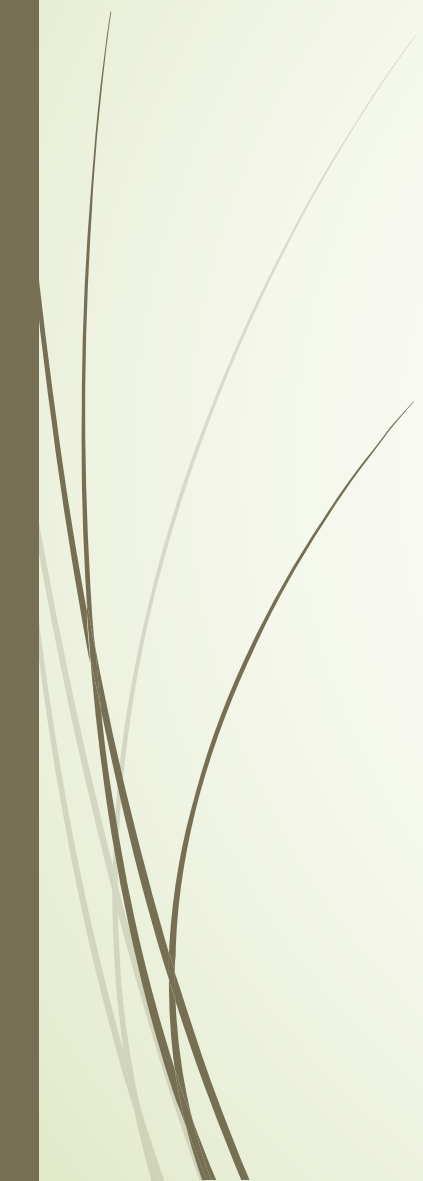

Fostering a Culture of Excellence, Belonging, and Growth

Presented by Heather Isom

2024-2025 Goal: Improving School Culture and Instructional Practices

"Every student at Sedona Red Rock middle school and high school will engage in critical thinking, problem-solving, and self-reflection in every class, every day."

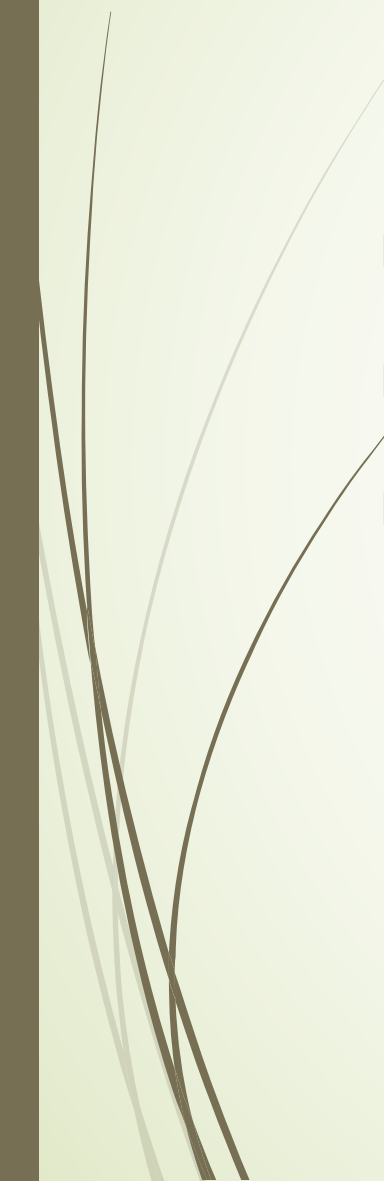

Engaged Classrooms

- Higher-Level Thinking (Depth of Knowledge)
- Academic Conversations
- Small Group Collaboration
- Critical Reading
- Critical Writing
- Public Speaking
- Creating

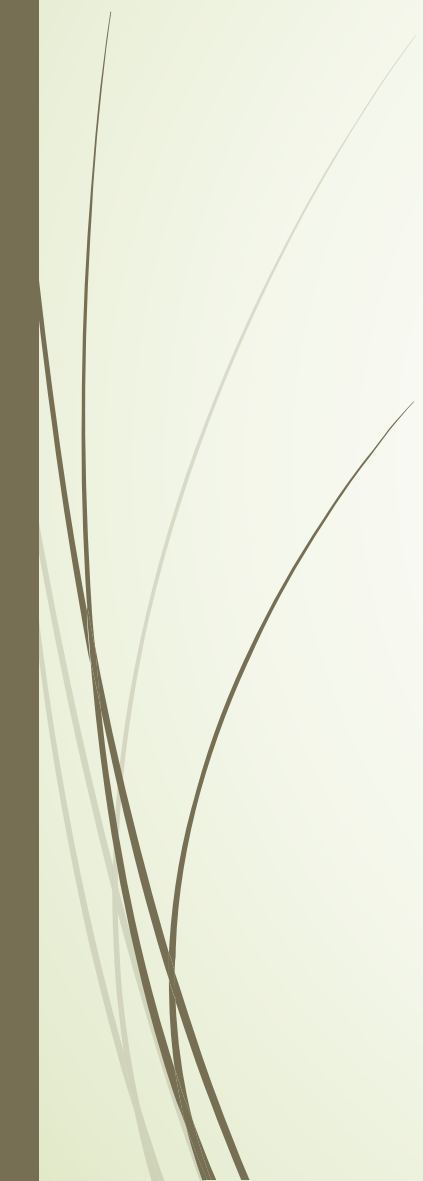

Decisions are Research-Based, Foundational, and Best-Practice

- Fundamentals not fads
 - Consistency over intensity
 - Growth rather than perfection
-

Focus on Habits

- Strong learning objectives tied to state standards
 - Skills-Based Curriculum Mapping
 - DOK level 3 of Critical Thinking
 - Academic Conversations are modeled and taught
 - Reflection on learning process and growth
-

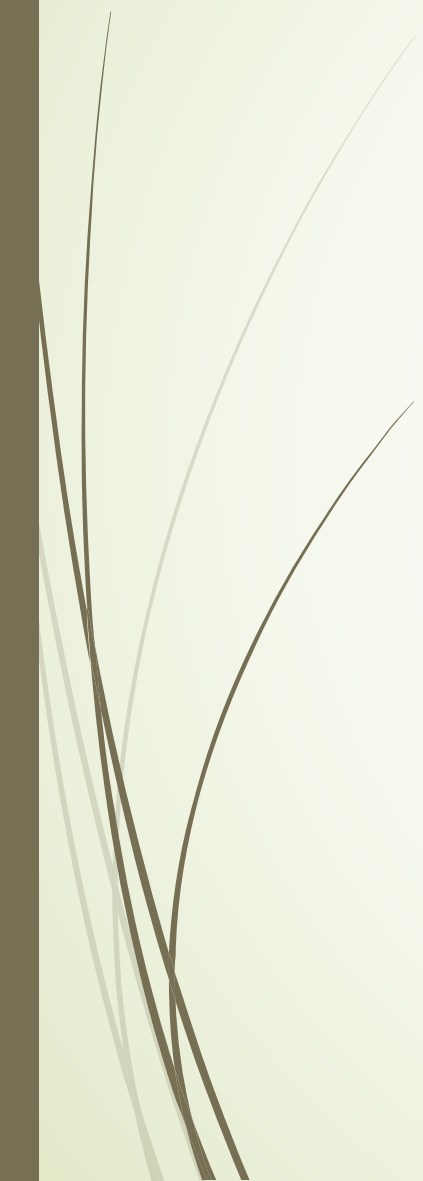

Student Growth and Support

- Introduction of Math Labs for both middle and high school students needing additional support.
- AP Course Offerings
 - AP Spanish (new)
 - AP Art (new)
 - AP Pre-Calculus (new)
 - AP Literature
 - AP Language
 - AP Biology
 - AP Environmental Science
 - AP Calculus
 - AP Research
 - AP Seminar
 - AP World History
 - AP US History
 - AP Human Geography

Middle School Reorganization

-
- Located at the Center of Campus
 - Middle School ELD Classes
 - Leadership Classes
 - Independent Reading
 - Advisory Groups
-
- Improvements in discipline, culture, instructional coaching, and social/emotional support.

Culture of Collaboration and Shared Decision Making

- Weekly Teacher PLCs
 - Staff Committees
 - Instructional
 - Culture and Climate
 - Operational
 - College and Career
 - Parent and Family Engagement
-

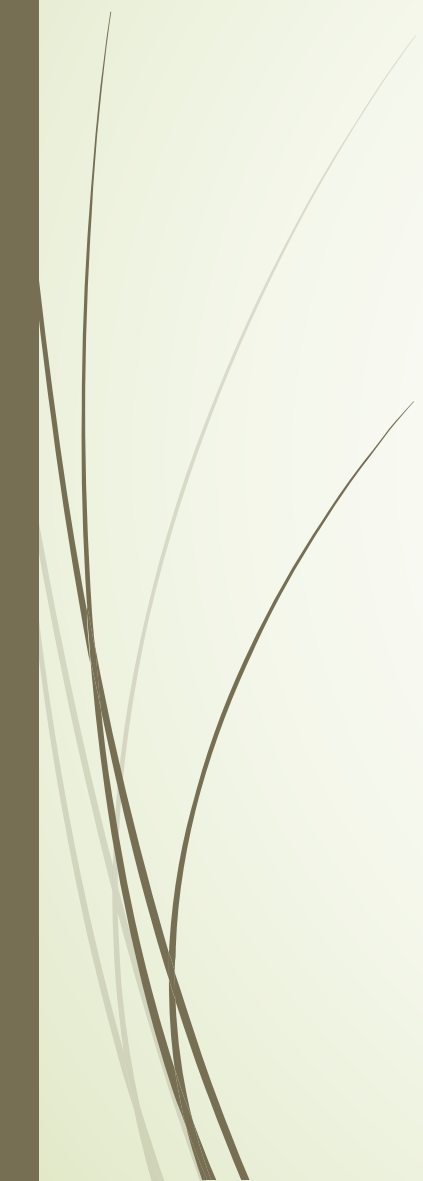

Student Involvement and School Culture

- Increased participation in sports and extracurriculars.
- Multiple Community Service Opportunities
- Vibrant Student Councils
- Monthly Senior Events
 - Parking Space Painting
 - Senior Sunrise

Conclusion

Sedona Red Rock Middle School and High School is a wonderful place for students to learn, grow, and just be kids.